Dear Name:

My friend, Jane Doe, who is a teller in your Springfield branch, told me that you are looking for a Consumer Loan Processing Specialist. As my enclosed resume shows, I have had considerable experience in processing real estate and consumer loans.

With my previous employers, I have acquired extensive knowledge on loan processing policies and procedures, underwriting and governmental agency requirements, terminology, automated processing systems, credit policies and approval process for assigned products. I also handled all aspects of processing and documenting appraisals, titles, flood certifications and insurance as well as verifying income. Because of my well-developed human relations and communications abilities, I have successfully processed many real estate and consumer loans and successfully resolved a variety of loan problems. I also possess computer skills that include various software packages, including word processing, spreadsheet, electronic mail and presentation, and banking systems.

I would like to talk with you about my loan processing experiences and describe how I can assist XYZ Bank Corporation with their consumer and real estate loans.

Please call me at 555-5555 so we can plan a time to talk about the position. I will call your office in a few days if I have not heard from you by then.

Best regards,

To Whom It May Concern,

Sandra Braxton worked as a human resources coordinator for two years in my department at Fennel Corp. During that time, Sandra has diverse responsibilities. She reviewed resumes to identify qualified employment candidates, conducted preliminary applicant interviews, and documented hiring-firing policy decisions for distribution to Fennel's various department supervisors.

Sandra is bright, articulate, and hard working. Her enthusiasm for the job comes through in all she does. She has a positive attitude that makes her a pleasure to work with and is one of the reasons she was so well-liked by her coworkers.

I highly recommend Sandra for any job she is considering in the Human Resources field. She would be an asset to any employer. If you have further questions about Sandra, please do not hesitate to contact me at (404) 55-1121, ext 200
